Road Trauma Awareness Seminar

Our Road Trauma Awareness Seminar program empowers participants to make safer decisions on the road while having a monetary sanction. It also offers a rehabilitative process for change.

Education
The program is based on a sound theoretical model of restorative justice principles and three psychological models:
1. Narrative Discourse
2. Experiential Learning
3. Cognitive Behavioural Therapy
It encourages behavioural change through a process of education, reflection and prevention.

The Road Trauma Awareness Seminar (RTAS) program is regularly reviewed and evaluated.

Outcomes
Participants commonly start the program displaying disinterest, bravado and lack of remorse. However, due to the program’s focus on behaviour change rather than blame, participants typically experience a noticeable shift in attitude. They are empowered to make choices toward being a safer road user.

“I will now respect fellow road users and consider how my decisions may affect others. I am going to also add a physical reminder to my car on how important it is to drive safely.”

Our Community
Road Trauma Support Services Victoria (RTSSV) is committed to educating the community and to raising public awareness about road trauma and how it affects people’s lives. A vital part of this educational work is delivered by our volunteers who share their personal stories about road trauma.

Road Trauma Support Services Victoria is a not-for-profit organisation contributing to the safety and wellbeing of Victorian road users.
Counselling

RTSSV provides free of charge counselling, information and peer support programs to more than 3,000 Victorians impacted by road trauma every year.

Counselling is provided to anyone impacted by transport trauma irrespective of when the collision occurred. Clients include bereaved families, friends and colleagues; injured people and their carers; drivers and passengers; cyclists and pedestrians; witnesses and emergency service workers.

You do not need a referral to access our services. To make an appointment with one of our counsellors, call 1300 367 797.
